

St Mary & St Joseph's Catholic Primary School Newsletter

10th March 2023

Dear Parents

It has been another busy week at school. Thank you for all your support throughout the sickness bug, the children finally celebrated World Book Day. Please note the dates below for your diary.

Dates for your diary
2.45pm Parent assembly year 6	10 th March 2023
3.15pm PTFA Tuck shop	10 th March 2023
PTFA own clothes day – In return children to donate some chocolate bar/egg for the tombola at the Easter Fair	17 th March 2023
Year 3 visit to Wareham	20 th March 2023
Year 2 visit to Corfe castle	21 st March 2023
Year 4 residential trip to New Barn	22 nd March 2023
2.45pm Parent assembly year 2	23 rd March 2023
PTFA Easter Fair 3.15-4.45pm	24 th March 2023

St Mary & St Joseph's Catholic Primary School Newsletter

On Thursday 9th March

The children spent the day celebrating books and engaging in book-related activities.

If you have not had them already look out for your child's vouchers in their book bag

St Mary & St Joseph's Catholic Primary School Newsletter

St Mary & St Joseph's Catholic Primary School Newsletter

St Mary & St Joseph's Catholic Primary School Newsletter

St Mary & St Joseph's Catholic Primary School Newsletter

St Mary & St Joseph's Catholic Primary School Newsletter

In June, Olivia Lloyd-Loveless will be doing a walk along the south west coast path from Lulworth to Weymouth to raise funds for a charity, that she has chosen called Saving Pound Dog Cyprus. If you wish to support her here is the link to her funding page and more details about the charity.

<https://gofund.me/bb104597>

Well done Olivia!

I dressed up as Harry Potter and made my own HP book

Phillip

I dressed up as an army man and I made my own army man book, it shows them firing their tank at a dinosaur.

Harry

This week's joke is from Parker

Q. If your book friend is being mean to you, what do you call him?
A. A crook!

I handmade my own book on our World Book Day.

Poppy

Best wishes

P Fearn

Mrs Paula Fearn

Executive Headteacher